

You're Not From Around Here, Are You Boy?

The Object Image Gallery is showcasing the work of seven gallery artists who are not from the New York area in its aptly named new show, Not From Around Here on view through June 12.

Several of these artists are from outside the United States. The work of some of these artists show how short stays in Brooklyn have had a strong influence on their work.

Laura Fantini from Bologna, Italy creates precise colored pencil and gouache images of Brooklyn icons such as the water tower and the Brooklyn Bridge. Albert Faynold, originally from the Ukraine and now a resident of Brooklyn, captures a sense of movement and energy in his drawings of Brooklyn.

Gallery hours are Thursday & Friday, 4-8 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday, 12-5 p.m. The gallery is at 91 Fifth Avenue between Prospect and Park places.

For information, call 718-623-2434 or visit www.objectimagegallery.com.

Brooklyn Bridge by Laura Fantini