

'Tickets, Coney Island' by Laura Fantini (above) and 'Coney Island Overpass' by Thomas Hagen are two of the pieces that will be on display at 'Images of Coney Island' exhibit

Views of Coney Island today

Coney Island, the great getaway for New Yorkers since the Civil War, is the subject of a new exhibit at the Object Image Gallery.

Ten painters and photographers capture the beaches, the Boardwalk, the excitement of the amusement parks and the familiar profile of Coney Island from the sea.

Gallery director Bob Weiss points out, "that capturing in paint and film how Coney Island looks today is vitally important in light of the proposed changes to this classic New York site." The show includes work by Thomas

Hagen, Laura Fantini, Jo Pendola, Cynthia Chatman, Jackie Weisberg, Fred Becker, Philomena Marano, Jeff Faerber, Warren Beishir and Richard Casciato.

Images of Coney Island is on view November 10-December 2 with an opening reception for the artists, November 10 from 2-6 p.m.

Gallery hours are Thursday and Friday, 4-8 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday, 12-5 p.m. The Gallery is at 91 Fifth Avenue, between Prospect and Park places in Brooklyn; call 718-623-2434 or visit www.obtectimagegallery.com.
